Happy Holidays

Happy Holidays

From military families who serve to families who stand beside them — we are all one family. Warm holiday wishes.

These holiday tips cover everything from getting your car and travel plans ready for winter weather, to decorating safely and keeping lights, trees, and candles away from fire risks. They also include reminders about handling food safely to avoid illness and choosing gifts that are age-appropriate—especially for little ones. A few quick precautions can help keep the season joyful, bright, and safe for everyone.

Wreaths Across America Parade

What has become known as the country's longest veterans' parade – Wreaths Across America's annual "Escort to Arlington" – kicks off on Saturday, December 6, 2025. The official route will travel down the East Coast, stopping at schools, memorials, and other locations along the way to spread the year-long mission to REMEMBER the fallen, HONOR those who serve, and TEACH the next generation the value of freedom.
