CalFresh

All sites are closed to the public until March 31, 2020, due to the COVID-19 health emergency. However, you can still apply online. The CalFresh program helps families and people who have little or no income to buy nutritious groceries. CalFresh benefits are not cash. CalFresh benefits come loaded on an electronic benefit transfer (EBT) card that can be used like a bank debit card to buy food at most grocery stores.

Has your income been impacted due to the COVID-19 (coronavirus)? If you are currently receiving CalFresh, you must report all changes to your worker at 888-472-4463.

Financial Assistance

California's Employment Development Department (EDD) provides a variety of support services to individuals affected by COVID-19 in California:

Disability Insurance: "If you're unable to work due to having or being exposed to COVID-19 (certified by a medical professional), you can file a Disability Insurance (DI) claim. DI provides short-term benefit payments to eligible workers who have a full or partial loss of wages due to a non-work-related illness, injury, or pregnancy. Benefit amounts are approximately 60-70 percent of wages (depending on income) and range from $50-$1,300 a week.

How to file a disability claim https://edd.ca.gov/Disability/How to File a DI Claim in SDI Online.htm

Paid Family Leave: If you're unable to work because you are caring for an ill or quarantined family member with COVID-19 (certified by a medical professional), you can file a Paid Family Leave (PFL) claim. PFL provides up to six weeks of benefit payments to eligible workers who have a full or partial loss of wages because they need time off work to care for a seriously ill family member or to bond with a new child. Benefit amounts are approximately 60-70 percent of wages (depending on income) and range from $50-$1,300 a week.

How to file a PFL claim: https://edd.ca.gov/Disability/How to File a PFL Claim in SDI Online.hm

Unemployment Claim "If your employer has reduced your hours or shut down operations due to COVID-19, you can file an Unemployment Insurance (UI) claim. UI provides partial wage replacement benefit payments to workers who lose their job or have their hours reduced, through no fault of their own. Workers who are temporarily unemployed due to COVID-19 and expected to return to work with their employer within a few weeks are not required to actively seek work each week. However, they must remain able and available and ready to work during their unemployment for each week of benefits claimed and meet all other eligibility criteria. Eligible individuals can receive benefits that range from $40-$450 per week."

How to file an unemployment claim:

https://edd.ca.gov/Unemployment/Filing\_a\_Claim.htm

Federal Unemployment Assistance the Department of Labor gave states leeway to amend their laws so people impacted by COVID-19 could get unemployment insurance: "Under the guidance, federal law permits significant flexibility for states to amend their laws to provide UI benefits in multiple scenarios related to COVID-19. For example, federal law allows states to pay benefits where: (1) An employer temporarily ceases operations due to COVID-19, preventing employees from coming to work; (2) An individual is quarantined with the expectation of returning to work after the quarantine is over; and (3) An individual leaves employment due to a risk of exposure or infection or to care for a family member. In addition, federal law does not require an employee to quit in order to receive benefits due to the impact of COVID-19." More details on the Department of Labor's website.

Caring for Members

Assisting with your financial security goals is your association's mission. That is especially true when challenges arise. Like the military, we plan and train continuously so that we can deliver in even the most difficult circumstances. We understand there may be instances because of the impacts of COVID-19 that members may find themselves facing financial difficulties. We encourage members who may be impacted to reach out to discuss how we might be of assistance, including:

- Special payment arrangements on auto and property insurance premiums and waived late fees
- Special payment arrangements on life and health insurance policies
- Waived and/or reimbursed deductibles or co-payments for coronavirus-related testing for members who have USAA Medicare supplement plans
- Special programs for consumer loans and credit cards

As always, you can rely on our mobile app and usaa.com for easy, 24x7 access to accounts and free online calculators. More than 90% of financial transactions with USAA are self-serve and can be completed without leaving your home or having to call. We encourage you to use these digital tools for non-urgent matters so that our representatives can focus on questions and complex member transactions. However, if you need to speak with a representative, you can call us at 210-531-USAA (8722), our mobile shortcut #8722 or 800-531-8722.

Travel

What the USO is doing in response to coronavirus due to the rapid spread of the virus, all USO airport locations in the United States will suspend operations effective Friday, March 13, 2020 and will remain suspended until further notice. USO will continue to provide programs and resources to service members and their families while ensuring health and safety for all. Some airport locations will continue to work with military commands to support large unit movements through airports.

USO will evaluate operational status on a weekly basis and will reopen airport locations as soon as possible.

We remain committed to responsibly supporting our service members and their families across the United States and overseas. Thank you for your service and we look forward to welcoming guests back to our airport locations soon!
