1. This MILPER message expires upon publication of FY20 guidance or NLT 5 July 2020.

2. This message announces eligibility, application instructions, administrative instructions and points of contact for the FY19 US Army Reserve (USAR) Additional Professional Development Education (APDE) Selection Panel which convenes o/a 16 September 2019. It is the individual applicant's responsibility to ensure that their military records are complete, updated and accurate. Failure to do so will result in not being considered eligible for any of the APDE courses offered for academic year (AY) 20.

3. The FY19 USAR APDE Selection Panel will select eligible Officers, Warrant Officers and Senior Enlisted Noncommissioned Officers for APDE attendance beginning in December 2019.

4. This is an "opt-in" panel; all eligible USAR Officers must apply with their course preferences, and will submit their preferences using the method provided below. Applications will not be accepted after the application window closes. Applicants should only select courses that they are currently eligible for.
 - a. The application window will open 9 June – 9 July 2019.
 - b. There will be no "board file" for applicants as this is a DA selection panel. Documents seen by the selection panel will only consist of those found in an applicant's iPERMS.
 - c. Eligible USAR Officers, Warrant Officers and Senior Enlisted Soldiers in competitive categories of AGR, TPU, IMA, MILTECHS, and IRR Soldiers with a valid CAC card, will submit course preference(s) through the HRC website. Applicants will access the "Self-Service" icon located under the "Soldier Services" section on the HRC Homepage. This action brings applicants to the "Tools and Applications Directory" page where applicants will access the "Personal Preference Pages for Centralized Selection Processes" site which can be found under the "Assignments" section. Applicants will follow the associated page access prompts to be brought to the HRC Soldier Selection Preference page <https://preferences.hrc.army.mil/HTDocs/>.
 - d. IRR Soldiers without a valid CAC card will email their preferences to usarmy.knox.hrc.mbx.opmd-idd-military-schools@mail.mil. These submissions will then be top-loaded into the application system.

5. Courses for Consideration:
 - a. The Reserve Component National Security Course (RCNSC) is a two week seminar offering joint credit to Reserve Component Field Grade Officers, Warrant

Officers (CW3 – CW5), and Senior Enlisted Soldiers (E8/E9). The RCNSC is designed to lay a foundation for students moving on to joint command management and staff responsibilities in a multinational, intergovernmental, or joint national security setting. The curriculum consist of lectures, panel discussions, seminars, on-site visits and a simulation exercise dealing with national security policy and defense resource management. Soldiers must meet the following eligibility requirements to apply and/or attend:
