Survivor Outreach Services

Nebraska's Honor and Remember Chapter presented personalized memorial flags to Families of four soldiers that had fallen in battle during World War I and World War II. The Families of Egle and Pound each suffered the loss of two family members during these wars. During the ceremony First Responders presented each family with a memorial flag with their loved one's name. U.S. Army Reserve Family Programs representative Mr. Kemp, USARC Survivor Outreach Services Program manager, was on hand to offer his respect and condolences to each of the Families.
