

ARMY FAMILY ACTION PLAN (AFAP)

Army Reserve Family Programs

Connecting: Soldiers • Families • Communities

The Army Family Action Plan (AFAP) is a platform to voice quality-of-life issues, and give feedback, ideas, and suggestions. It's the best way to let Army leadership know what works and, what does not work, and to give feedback on how problems may be resolved. The Army Family Action Plan enables active and reserve component Soldiers, Army Civilians, Retirees, Survivors, and Family Members a powerful tool to help identify issues and concerns and shape their standard of living.

You can submit issues at your local Army Community Service (ACS) center; or on-line using the Issue Management System (IMS) at: <https://ims.armyfamilywebportal.com/>. The information you submit gives Army leadership insight and helps foster a satisfied, informed, and resilient Army community.

Since 1983, over 700 issues have been raised at the Department of the Army level – and those have resulted in over 500 improvements for Soldiers, Families, and Army communities.
