MEMORANDUM FOR Deputy Chief of Staff, G-1

SUBJECT: Delegation of Authority #20-07: Approve Unqualified Resignations of U.S. Army Reserve (USAR) Troop Program Unit (TPU) Officers

1. References:

a. Memorandum, HQ, AR, AFRC-PRP, 28 Nov 2018, Subject: Delegation of Authority to Approve Unqualified Resignations of Non-obligated U.S. Army Reserve Troop Program Unit (TPU) Officers.

b. Army Regulation (AR) 135-175, Separation of Officers, 30 March 2020.

2. This memorandum supersedes reference 1a above and remains in effect until superseded, rescinded, or withdrawn.

3. In accordance with AR 135-175, para 6-9b, I delegate authority to the U.S. Army Reserve Command Deputy Chief of Staff, G-1, or a division chief in the grade of colonel or civilian equivalent to approve unqualified resignations for all non-obligated Army Reserve TPU officers and for some obligated officers when the resignation is based on religious reasons (AR 135-175, para 6-10a(2)). No further delegation is authorized.

4. In accordance with AR 135-175, para 6-9a, the authority to take final action on requests for unqualified resignations submitted by obligated Army Reserve officers, except officers whose resignation is for religious reasons, is reserved for Commander, U.S. Army Human Resources Command on behalf of Headquarters, Department of the Army.

5. For additional information contact Ms. Diane Rogers, Army Reserve G-1, Officer Management Branch, at (910) 570-9519 or usarmy.usarc.usarc-hq-mbx.pmd-omb@mail.mil.
