- c.* Make recommendations.
- d.* Prepare plans and orders.
- e.* Monitor execution of decisions.
- f.* Process, analyze, and disseminate information.
- g.* Identify and analyze problems.
- h.* Conduct coordination.
- i.* Conduct training.
- j.* Perform assistance visits/inspections.
- k.* Conduct research and writing.

- m.* Supervise personnel.

1-2. References, forms, and explanation of abbreviations

1-3. Associated publications

This section contains no entries.

1-4. Responsibilities

See chapters 3-36.

1-5. Records management (recordkeeping) requirements

This section contains no entries.

1-6. Policy

- a.* This regulation prescribes the approved organizational structure, missions, and major functions for all staff elements of this Headquarters.
- b.* Directorates will only deviate from the organizational structure or cause a realignment of functions prescribed herein with prior approval following the procedures outlined in this regulation. Flexibility is fundamental to a good organization, and the above statement is not restricted to USARC Chief of Staff (CoS) approved changes.
- c.* This regulation is the controlling document for the organization of this Headquarters. Table of Distribution and Allowances (TDA) and all other published media will conform to the organizational alignment and use titles and terms printed in this document.
- d.* The Office of the Director, USARC G-3/5/7 Force Management and Manpower (FMM) Directorate are responsible for:

(1) Reviewing, coordinating, and approving all changes to this regulation and making appropriate recommendations concerning those changes considered to be of such magnitude and scope as to require approval of the CoS (establishment or discontinuance of principal staff offices and divisions therein).

(2) Analyzing organizational structure and functional statements for conformity with established principles and compliance with prescribed policies and standard.

1-7. Guidance

a. The standard pattern for organizational elements of this Headquarters in descending order is directorate, division, branch, and section.

b. This regulation will not reflect elements below the branch level. FMM processes changes following paragraph 1-7. Staff directorates are required to gain approval for proposed revisions to organizational elements.

c. A division or branch will not be subdivided to show a single organizational element in the next descending order. Subdivided divisions must contain at least two organizational elements (branches).

d. The number of individuals reporting directly to the head of an organizational element should be the number that can be effectively coordinated and controlled. The complexity of the function is the prime consideration. Each established organizational element should generally contain a minimum of five to eight persons in any element.

e. Responsibilities assigned to a segment of an organization must be specific, clear-cut, and understandable.

1-8. Procedures for processing changes

Submit proposed organizational structure changes or functions assignment to G-3/5/7 FMM for analysis, packaging, and final presentation to the Command Group for approval. FMM will only make organizational structure changes with prior permission. Provide the following information:

a. Specific requirements or reasons for the proposed change.

b. Statements of the specific advantages to result from the change, addressing the following factors as appropriate:

(1) If a change will result in improved operations, clearly identify the functions or responsibilities transferred, eliminated, modified, or newly assigned, and state the reasons(s) for the change.

(2) If there is a change in mission or staffing by a directive from a higher authority, cite such directive or authorization and attach a copy.

(3) If a proposed change requires realigning manpower requirements and authorizations within the staff (or between staff), provide an audit trail of realigned TDA positions and a copy of the current published TDA.

c. A statement indicating the effect of the proposed change on position grade structure and personnel impacts. The FMM office will coordinate Civilian grade changes and personnel impacts with the Civilian Personnel Management Office (CPMO). Prior informal coordination with the CPMO is encouraged.

d. A proposed organizational chart. On each block of the chart, indicate the number of officers, Warrant Officers (WO), enlisted personnel (Active Guard Reserve (AGR) and Active Army separately), and Civilians performing the functions. Requirements may serve as a basis for meeting the numbers criteria of individuals outlined in paragraph 1-6d above. This paragraph specifies the number of individuals required to establish an organizational element but will not be the source for determining authorized spaces.

e. Provide proposed functional statements for each organizational element affected by the revision. FMM uses proposed functional statements to update the function statement in this regulation. Coordinate the revision with all affected staff agencies before submission, indicating such coordination on the cover memo.

f. Submit associated manpower change(s) on a DA Form 2028, as an enclosure to the memo. Any changes to allocated manpower spaces must remain within the identified manpower category: such as Off, WO, and Enl (AC), Civ, and AGR Off, AGR WO, AGR ENL.
