

CRUCIAL IMPACT AT HOME AND ABROAD

DOMESTIC IMPACT:

$7.4 BILLION

DOLLARS SPENT

$16.1 BILLION

ECONOMIC IMPACT

$4.6 BILLION

NON-DOD WAGES

141,227

NON-DOD JOBS

NORTHCOM
U.S. Northern Command
Four units

SOUTHCOM
U.S. Southern Command
Five units

Through its presence in all 56 states and territories, the Army Reserve contributes significantly to local economic activity, supports thousands of jobs and provides Citizen Soldiers with valuable skills and training. Through the Defense Support of Civil Authorities (DSCA) it also helps mitigate loss of life and property in cases of emergency or natural disaster.

A GLOBAL FORCE

30

COUNTRIES with an ARMY RESERVE PRESENCE

300,000

SOLDIERS DEPLOYED Since 9/11

20% 6%

of the TOTAL ARMY'S MANPOWER but only

of its BUDGET

15,000

SOLDIERS Supporting COMBAT COMMANDS

EUCOM
U.S. European Command
Three units

PACOM
U.S. Pacific Command
Four units

CENTCOM
U.S. Central Command
Five units

AFRICOM
U.S. African Command
Three units

Steady demand for Army Reserve capabilities has introduced a new paradigm of reliance on the Army Reserve as a critical part of our national security architecture. Beyond the units assigned to the 6 major Commands, an additional 13 units are globally available to support the Total Force.

