

FAMILY PROGRAMS

The strength of our Soldiers comes from the strength of their families.

The Army Reserve educates and empowers members of the military community to develop skills and encourages behaviors that strengthen resilience, promote retention, and enhance readiness.

PROGRAMS AND SERVICES

We support readiness and quality of life by reducing the conflict between mission requirements and family responsibilities.

- ★ Child and Youth Development
- ★ Army Family Action Plan
- ★ Survivor Outreach Services (SOS)
- ★ Financial Readiness

Learn more by visiting www.arfp.org

YELLOW RIBBON REINTEGRATION PROGRAM

The Yellow Ribbon Reintegration Program provides resources and support to family members and Soldiers to assure they are prepared to cope with the challenges of extended separation and deployment.

Learn more by visiting www.yellowribbon.mil

RESOURCES

Resources such as Military OneSource, a service for Soldiers and their families, help with a broad range of concerns including finances, moving and relationships.

- ★ Army Strong Bonds
- ★ Military OneSource
  - Army Family Team Building Resource
  - Financial Readiness Resource
  - Soldier and Family Assistance Center

Learn more by visiting www.arfp.org/resources.html

