

Army Reserve Family Programs

Connecting: Soldiers • Families • Communities

We offer relevant and responsive programs, services, and resources focused on developing the Soldier and Family member life skills necessary for the unique challenges of the Army Reserve Family.

READINESS AND TRAINING

Family Programs offers relevant and responsive training and educational opportunities designed to assist in learning more about military life, to develop coping skills necessary in addressing the unique challenges of the Army Reserve lifestyle, and empower Soldiers and Families with information to access the right resource at the right time.

Available Training Includes

- ▶ Classes and resources to enhance Soldier and Family member life skills for successfully navigating the unique challenges of the military lifestyle.
- ▶ Forums for command teams to understand the importance of a healthy and holistic unit Family Readiness Program and the resources available to support the command's program.
- ▶ Classes and resources for volunteer orientation, opportunities, rewards, expectations and requirements of volunteering with the Army Reserve.
- ▶ Tele-Mobilization and Tele-Reunion Briefings for Army Reserve Soldiers and Families on topics related to deployment preparations and reunion and reintegration.

- ▶ Resilience training in a variety of venues for Soldiers and Family members to develop mental, physical and emotional abilities to face and cope with adversity, adapt to change and recover and grow from setbacks.

- ▶ Operations Security (OPSEC), Personally Identifiable Information (PII) training provides an enhanced understanding of how to handle and identify PII.

- ▶ Volunteer training for instructors, briefers and facilitators to increase their proficiency in instructional skills.
