

Alcohol

Alcohol possession is not permitted in the academy area. If students partake in the consumption of alcohol, they must not drive under the influence of alcohol, arrive to barracks intoxicated, drink within eight hours of class instruction, report to class intoxicated, and/or cause disruption due to intoxication.

Personal Rights

All interaction between students must create a climate of teamwork and professional cooperation, where the rights and dignity of the individual Soldier are preserved.

Reporting Violations

Students who commit a violation of the Honor Code System must report the violation immediately to any Academy cadre member. A Student witnessing or having first-hand knowledge of a violation must report the violation, even if the person who committed it did not. Any student having knowledge of a violation and fails to properly report it is also guilty of violating the Honor Code System.

Consequences

Violations of the Student Honor Code System will not be tolerated. A student in violation of any provision of this system is subject to disciplinary release. In all cases, the Commandant determines student releases under the provisions of the Honor Code System.

CHAPTER 6

STUDENT BARRACKS STANDARDS

General

1. Maintenance and upkeep of Army facilities is a responsibility of the Noncommissioned Officer. The standards for upkeep of your room and barracks are purposefully high. It is the individual's responsibility to maintain a clean and professional living environment.
2. These standards also reinforce teamwork. You are not expected to do all the work yourself; you do have a roommate. If two Soldiers cannot accomplish a simple mission like taking care of an assigned room and property, then they surely cannot be expected to take care of Soldiers, the Army's most valuable resource.

Maintenance Guidelines

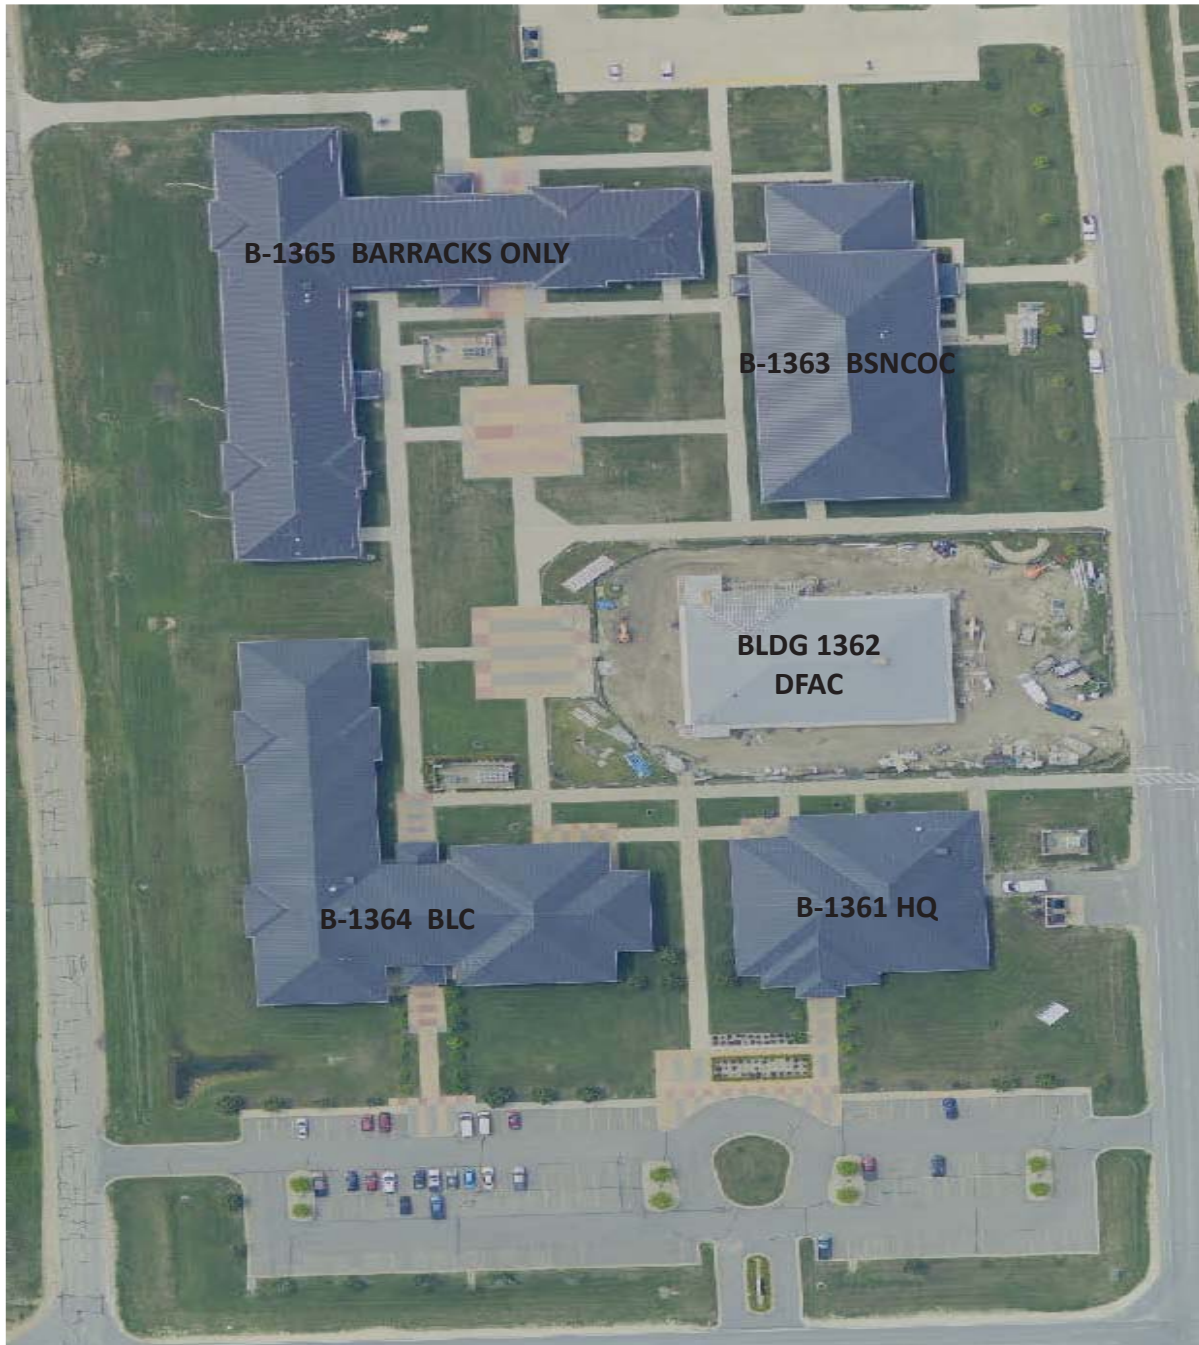

1. You are evaluated on your ability to follow the instructions outlined in this chapter on a daily basis.
2. All inspectable items such as police call areas, break area, classroom, latrine, uniforms, etc., are prepared for inspection prior to first formation daily.
3. Should your room require any maintenance, inform your squad leader who in turn will inform a Facilitator.

Barracks Rules:

1. Here is a list of general rules that apply in the student barracks:
 - a. Turn off all lights when the billets are unoccupied.
 - b. Do not remove or tamper with fire extinguishers.
 - c. No open flames are authorized such as candles, incense, etc.
 - d. Do not move or remove furniture from the room.
 - e. No tobacco or alcohol use in the barracks.
 - f. Thermostat will be set between 68-70 degrees.
 - g. Fire exit doors will be used for emergencies only.
 - h. All military equipment and any items of value will be locked in your wall locker when not in use.
 - i. Wall lockers will be neat and orderly, and locked at all times when not in use.
 - j. All cleaning supplies will be neat under sink. Sink cabinets will be stocked with three toilet paper rolls, one bundle paper towels, 3-5 trash bags, and all necessary cleaning agents. If you store your personal hygiene items under the sink, it will be kept in an orderly fashion.
 - k. Windows will remain closed at all times. Shades will be down and closed when room is unoccupied.

- l. ALL garbage cans will be emptied prior to the start of the duty day.
- m. All floors will be vacuumed and mopped prior to the start of the duty day.
- n. Desks, sinks, mirrors, toilets, and showers will be thoroughly cleaned prior to the start of the duty day.
- o. Latrine doors will remain open at all times unless occupied.
- p. Shower curtains will be closed at all times.
- q. Safeguarding of valuables is an individual responsibility. Ensure your locker is secured before leaving your area.
- r. Barrack rooms are off limits to members of the opposite sex.
