

WTSP FORT BLISS SITE VISIT, 4 SEPTEMBER 2025

Task: The US Army Reserve Command (USARC) Surgeon General is tasked with conducting site visits to Soldier Recovery Units (SRUs) and MFGI sites to provide guidance and assistance to all COMPO 3 Soldiers assigned to the SRUs or at the MFGIs for mobilization/demobilization.

Goal: Continue to build on the partnership and shared commitment established by the USARC with the Fort Bliss SRU command and staff to support the medical and administrative needs and concerns of all COMPO 3 Soldiers assigned to the SRU.

Summary:

- SFC Bobadilla and CPT Ferdinand met with the Fort Bliss SRU Battalion Commander, LTC McRae, Fort Bliss Operations, ARCP Recovery Care Coordinators, S-1, and conducted a Town Hall meeting with COMPO 3 soldiers in recovery.
- CPT Ferdinand, SFC Bobadilla, and SSG Velasco met with the new Fort Bliss MFGI and Case Management leadership to continue to build on the relationship USARC has established with the MFGI.
